The Power and Priority of Christian Unity (Pt. 1)

Philippians 1:27-30

Series: The Joy Factor

Central Passage

Philippians 1:27–30 (ESV) — 27 Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel, 28 and not frightened in anything by your opponents. This is a clear sign to them of their destruction, but of your salvation, and that from God. 29 For it has been granted to you that for the sake of Christ you should not only believe in him but also suffer for his sake, 30 engaged in the same conflict that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Central Thought: Our unity in Christ, and our willingness to stand together, and even suffer together for his kingdom purposes, is our primary identifier and the key to our witness.

- ❖ Paul challenges us to live first and foremost as subjects of king Jesus. (Phil. 1:27a)
  - "Manner of life," Greek – politeuesthe = "your conduct as a citizen."

Philippians 3:20 (ESV) — 20 But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ... (See also Hebrews 11:13-16)

- ❖ Thus, the source and focus of our unity are as fellow citizens of the kingdom of God. (Phil. 1:27b)

- "faith of the gospel" = Greek – (gospel), euongeliou = the "good news" that Jesus is king!

1 Peter 2:11 (ESV) — 11 Beloved, I urge you as sojourners and exiles to abstain from the passions of the flesh, which wage war against your soul. \

- ❖ Our Christ-centered unity is a source of courage in the face of opposition, and the heart of our witness. (Phil. 1:28)

1 Peter 2:12 (ESV) — 12 Keep your conduct among the Gentiles honorable, so that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day of visitation. (See also Matt. 5:16)

John 13:34–35 (ESV) — 34 A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. 35 By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

- ❖ Both faith and suffering are "gifts" from God that strengthen our unity and draw us closer to Jesus. (Phil. 1:29)
  - "Granted to you," Greek – echaristhe = freely given

Homework

- ❖ Prayerfully read through Paul's letter to the Philippians and the "see also" passages above.
- ❖ Prayerfully consider your citizenship and your ultimate allegiance.
